

Biatain[®] Silicone Lite

Enjoy the freedom of the new Biatain[®] Silicone Lite

New and improved

Biatain® Silicone Lite

– superior absorption with soft adhesion for increased mobility

Features

- Unique Biatain foam structure for superior absorption
- Secure fit
- Superior exudate management¹
- Ultra thin, soft and flexible
- Non-touch opening

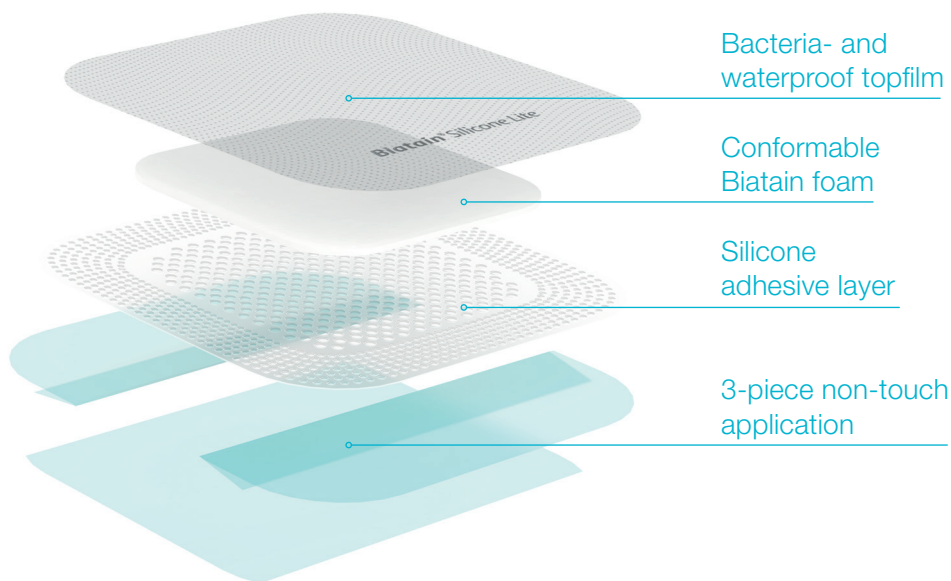

Benefits

- Conforms closely to wound bed and body
- Increased mobility
- Minimal maceration and leakage
- Aseptic and easy application reducing waste of dressings

Superior absorption
– faster healing

The new and improved Biatain Silicone Lite

- The new Biatain Silicone Lite has an adhesive silicone wound contact layer providing a secure fit to keep the dressing in place while still ensuring minimal pain upon removal.
- It is a thin and ultra flexible foam dressing that can be used when need for increased mobility.
- Biatain Silicone Lite has a 3-piece non-touch opening for safe and easy application.

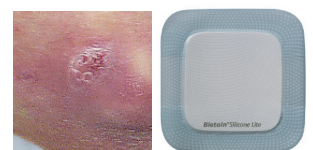

New Biatain Silicone products

Biatain Silicone

– superior absorption with soft adhesion for general purposes

Biatain Silicone Lite

– superior absorption with soft adhesion for increased mobility

Usage

Biatain Silicone Lite is indicated for a wide range of exuding wounds and is to be used whenever a thin foam dressing is needed.

¹. Coloplast data on file 2013